

Digital Communications Intern (Unpaid) Spring Semester, Fall Semester, or Summer

Reports to: Communications Manager

Hours: approximately 8-12 hours per week, flexible scheduling

Duration: At least one full semester (typically a 4-6 month commitment)

Location: Remote

Are you concerned about growing injustice in the United States? Are you moved by your faith to stand with those facing threats to their basic human rights? As Digital Communications Intern at Justice Revival, you will be communicating on behalf of a leading Christian voice for human rights in the United States.

Justice Revival is a faith-based organization committed to inspiring, educating, and mobilizing Christian communities to stand in solidarity with the oppressed and defend the human rights of the vulnerable. We are a dynamic, early phase nonprofit seeking an energetic, motivated volunteer Digital Communications Intern. This is an opportunity to be part of building an organization dedicated to amplifying a Christian voice for justice and human rights in the United States.

We're looking for someone who is seeking to hone their skills in communications, social media, basic graphic design and video editing, and website maintenance, preferably in a nonprofit setting. You will play a vital role in growing Justice Revival's public presence and community building with our growing digital community. This is a unique opportunity to sharpen your digital communications and professional social media skills while helping raise awareness of the growing Christian support for human rights in the U.S. You'll be provided with on-the-job training and support that will position you for professional growth and success in a future career. We are dedicated to your personal and professional growth during this opportunity and beyond.

Responsibilities (all with training, support, and oversight from supervisor):

- Support implementation of social media strategy and increase Justice Revival's social media presence across channels including Instagram, Twitter, Facebook, and LinkedIn

- Schedule socials and web content using Later
- Clip and edit videos for social media
- Research and save trending reel audios
- Pitch creative, engaging ideas for potential social media content
- Develop communication assets; support graphic design using Canva
- Design mass emails and newsletters in a CRM database (Bloomerang)
- Maintain donor CRM database and analyze reports of donor engagement
- Support live-tweeting events

Required Qualifications:

- Ability to clearly articulate the mission and significance of Justice Revival
- Social media savviness and fluency, particularly Instagram and/or Twitter
- Skill or experience in one or more of the following areas: marketing, communications, advocacy, brand management, public relations, nonprofit fundraising, journalism, graphic design, professional social media management
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Initiative, creativity, flexibility, and an entrepreneurial spirit
- A contagious passion for our cause
- Bonuses: experience with Instagram reels, video editing, advanced graphic design

How to Apply

Send mdonohoe@justicerevival.org:

- your CV or resume
- a Cover Letter that illustrates why you would be a good fit for Justice Revival, details of skills and experiences you would bring to the team, and a brief statement of faith (if applicable)

Applications will be reviewed until position is filled. Please indicate the semester to which you are applying in your application materials.
