

Impact Report

January - June 2022

a Christian voice for human rights in the United States

Educational Events

The "Heart of Human Rights" online event series featured experts on death penalty abolition & economic rights. Participants were inspired to contact their representatives, catalyze church dialogue, & volunteer locally.

500+

attendees joined us live at 2 educational events

Thought Leadership

Justice Revival was invited to Davis & Elkins College and Pepperdine School of Law to deliver keynote addresses. Students had the opportunity to explore the intersection of Christianity, human rights, & advocacy.

8

educational podcasts &
online interviews

Seminary Education

The Institute for Justice Formation at the John Leland Center for Theological Studies welcomed us back to teach 4 hours of seminary education illuminating how human rights can counter racial injustice in the U.S.

4

articles published in new media outlets

4

keynote speaking engagements

72K

digital advocates reached
on social media

“So well said! Thank you for fighting the good fight and seeking to build bridges, not burn them.

- Response to thought leadership on the reversal of Roe v. Wade