

Digital Communications Intern or Fellow

Reports to: Communications Manager

Hours: Approximately 8-12 hours per week, flexible scheduling

Duration: Typically 4-6 months or at least one full academic semester

Location: Remote

Are you concerned about growing injustice in the United States? Are you moved by your faith to stand with those facing threats to their basic human rights? As Digital Communications Intern at Justice Revival, you will be communicating on behalf of a leading Christian voice for human rights in the United States.

Justice Revival is a diverse, inclusive community of Christian faith and a leading voice for human rights in the United States. We inspire people of faith with knowledge and understanding of human rights and unite with them to promote a nation and culture free from injustice. This is an opportunity to be part of building an organization dedicated to amplifying a faith-based voice for justice and human rights in the United States.

In this position, we're looking for someone who is seeking to hone their skills in communications, social media, basic graphic design and video editing, and website maintenance, preferably in a nonprofit setting. You will play a vital role in growing Justice Revival's public presence and community building with our growing digital community. This is a unique opportunity to sharpen your digital communications and professional skills while helping raise awareness of the growing Christian support for human rights in the U.S. You'll be provided with on-the-job training and support that will position you for professional growth. We are dedicated to your personal and professional growth during this opportunity and beyond.

Potential responsibilities include (all with training, support, and oversight from supervisor):

- Increase Justice Revival's social media presence across channels by supporting the implementation of new and existing strategies on Instagram, Twitter, Facebook, and LinkedIn

- Clip and edit videos for use on social media
- Pitch creative, engaging ideas for potential social media content
- Design social media content and other communications materials on Canva
- Schedule social media content
- Assist with website updates and recommend improvements
- Collaborate on fundraising campaigns and strategies to improve donor engagement and retention
- Support event planning and marketing
- Support the #Faith4ERA campaign as needed in the area of communications and digital advocacy

Required Qualifications:

- Ability to clearly articulate the mission and significance of Justice Revival
- Social media savviness and fluency, particularly with Instagram and Twitter
- Skill or experience in one or more of the following areas: marketing, communications, advocacy, brand management, public relations, nonprofit fundraising, journalism, graphic design, or professional social media management
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Initiative, creativity, flexibility, and an entrepreneurial spirit
- A contagious passion for human rights
- Bonuses: experience with TikTok videos or Instagram reels, video editing, advanced graphic design

How to Apply

Email the following to ehcervantes@justicerevival.org:

- Your CV or resume
- Briefly share why you are interested in Justice Revival and this particular role, a summary of your relevant experience, and a statement of faith (if you identify as a person of faith)
- The semester or time period to which you are applying